

K-LOVE radio is an important part of my community. It provides family oriented programming including music and news. It provides timely updates of hazardous weather in my local area and a community events calendar. Our local community is a combination of rural, suburban, and urban areas. K-LOVE unites us. It serves a vital public interest and has been a Godsend to my family and I. Don't displace it!